Zoran Ilioski is original uncomplicated kid -bubbling with enthusiasm, straight as a die and, in talking to the Press, completely oblivious to whether or not he's saying the "right thing."

About his own prospects,

"Little Zokkie" as former club president Tony Kovacs dubbed him, talks with the same disarming frankness:
"If I were given the chance, I would prove to everyone I'm better than many now in the national team. But I have to get better at heading. Since I broke my nose, that's worried me. Cira (coach Cedo Cirkovic) says that if I could hit the ball better with my head, I'd be in the Australlian team no worries."

Ilioski, who turned 23 last Friday, has watched many of his contemporaries hit the heights only to crash back down to earth prematurely. He observes.

The Argentinians plan to come to Austraha 13 days before the youth titles kick off to get acclimatised to Australian conditions.

They will have had almost four months of solid training together by the t im e the championships kick off with the opening ceremony in Melbourne on Saturday, October 3.

A month before the championships all the Argentinian players will be banned from playing club football.

So the message is clear — look out, Socceroos!

With this sort of plan-ning and preparation it is little wonder Argentina is world champion at both senior and youth levels.

Argentina's brilliant World Cup-winning coach Luis Cesar Menotti will be in Australia for the WYC.

The world's greatest player, Diego Maradona also will be in Australia for the series.

However both Menotti and Maradona could miss the start, as they will be touring Europe with the Argentine national team just before the youth series kicks off.

Hotham appealed against the tribunal decision and the VSF Appeals Board met last week with a solicitor representing the Hotham committee, the Argentinian consul and Jose Montex from radio station 3EA. It also received a host of written submissions including a petition supporting Hotham and signed by almost 600 people.

Hotham was in trouble with the VSF over a game against Rosebud which was abandoned amidst violence.

The preliminary submission from Hotham's solicitor established that the tenets of natural justice had been transgressed at the tribunal bearing.

solitation justice had been transgressed as an injustice had been transgressed a telegram from the VSF, calling the club to appear before the tribunal No charge had been named in the telegram. Indeed Hotham first knew of the charge against it on the night of the tribunal bearing.

Appeals Board chairman and Queen's Coun-l, Michael Knott, after consultation with his ree fellow Board members, ruled that the tribunal meeting which suspended the club be ruled invalid.

Hotham, not knowing the charge until the night of the tribunal meeting had been unable to prepare a suitable defence.

So it's back to square one. Hotham will be formally charged by registered mail and will appear before the tribunal tomorrow night (Thursday) at 7.30m.

The club has the right of appeal against tomorrow night's decision.

Meanwhile all Hotham matches will be postponed.

Meanwhile all Hotham matches will be postponed,
The star of the night, my first as an observer at an Appeals Board hearing, undoubtedly was Knott.
His sharp wit and ability to communicate at varying levels captivated most participants in the night's activities.

George Cross appealed against the $500 fine imposed on the club for comments allegedly made by club president Alf Zahra to referee Sam Zoumas after a State League match earl-ies this cases.

It didn't take Knott long to come to grips with the situation
Zahra had been charged as an individual yet the tribunal had punished the club instead of punishing the charged party.
So It was a happy ending as far as George Cross officials were concerned.

But Hotham still has to sit out an anxious period until a decision is made on the club's future in Victorian soccer-CRAIG MACKEN-ZIE.

Ambitious Ajaxfrom mud plains to brink of glory

Green Gully AJax is poised to reap the richest possible harvest from one of the most ambitious recruiting campaigns in the history of Australian soccer.

Ajax bought no less than 10 players at the start of the season.

Such drastic team rebuilding can result in disaster, as so many clubs have found out to their detriment over the years.

But in the case of Ajax, it resulted in the club moving to the top of the Victorian State League ladder in the fifth round of the com-petition and staying there until now. With stx rounds to go, Ajax has an excellent chance to win the championship and, perlaps, to gain promotion to the Philips League.

The 10 players acquired this year are: Peter Lewis and Stewart Cannell from Altona, John Gardiner from Crotala, Kit Greechan from Western Suburbs, Kevin Wall from Frankston, Gordon Wallace, Alan Bennett and Gus McLeod from Scotland, Paul Lewis from England and Jim Williams from Heidelberg-Alexander.

The only 1980 players who remained are Dave Hogben, Lou Denys, Bill Morrey, Gerry Bennett and Willie Vassallo.

Winning the State League title would be the crowning achievement of a club that has risen from the mud plains of St Albans to become an example to many of the longer-established clubs.

Twenty-six years old, Ajax was formed in 1955 to cater only for juniors. Harry Moakes formed the club along with pioneers Frank Kolbi and Joe Sammut.

Ajax won the Victorian under 16 championship in 1960 before entering senior competition in 1962, and it was promoted progressively in 1963, 64, 66, 71 and 76 to finally reach the State League.

reach the State League.

The 1986 team that won its way into the Second Division included some of the ploneers.

Henry Dynak, Joe Biewer who now is coach of St Albans. Charlie Grimand, George Zumboulakis. Arnold Langer who twice was best and fairest and who now is club treasurer, Nick Kohl, present committeeman Boris Brain and Charlie Vella, now with Broad-meadows.

The 1976 team which was promotion to the State Lengue included longest serving player Mario Borg who also is on the committee now, goalkeeper Mick Borg, John Grade (ex-Keilor City), Roy Collins who won the league best and fairest award that year, David Cole who was club best and fairest, much-travelled Eddie Klimczak who played for many west suburban clubs, youth representatives Andy

Segi (now Western Suburbs) and Manny Spi-teri and of course long-serving Franz Berenz. In order to do well in its first State League season, Ajax embarked on a recruiting cam-paign that was nowhere near as successful as the one Bobby McLachlan engineered this

Among the players bought at the time were Les Thomson and Peter Donaldson (Heidel-berg-Alexander), Willie Vassalio from Malta, Jim McGill from England, Tony Hammill from Altona City, and John Patten from Sla-via

But the team finished second last. Luckily folonia finished nine points behind, in last lace — and only one team was relegated.

Another recruiting campaign followed in 1978, with Dave Perkin and Steve Carr coming from England, Stan Klain from Werribee, Ian McCarthy from Sunshine and Steve Bennie from Slavia.

McCarthy won the club's best and fairest award but the team finished ninth. It was Ringwood Wilhelmina that was relegated.

More new blood flowed in — Billy Vojtek its greatest success up to that time — winning

But in the league it was the same old story. This time Ajax finished 10th, while Slavia and Albion Rovers were relegated — the first year that two went down, instead of one.

Fashanu farce. Eddie's in error

I heard the remarkable comment while I Justin Fashanu is not fitting into Adelaide City's style of play.

My. my. I guest Kevin Keegan would be hard to fit in as well — or Beckenbauer Maradona, or Graziani.
Surely Adelaide football is not so advanced that there is no room in it for Fashanu. Against Blacktown, Fashanu was lying wide on the right wing.

anu was lying wide on the right wige. Fashanu is a target man, for the middle, a master of the penalty area and God knows there are lew enough of those in the game. I wish I had him. Pd fit him in quick smart, and I'd guarantee two goals belore we even took the park against any opposition in the country. The people who say it's difficult to fit a Fashanu into Adelaide City's team clearly don't know what they're talking about

The Philips League is approaching its close with only two teams in the running for the championship — Sydney City and South Melbourne Helas.

They've had their ups and downs but they've been the most consistent and either of them would deserve the title. It's a hard thing, winning the championship, and at this stage experience is everything. Sydney City's players have that experience, for they've been there before, whereas the Hellas players may start making silly mistakes borne out of nervousness, or excitement.

Sydney City has to count its fans one by one and multiply by 10 in order to get a respectable figure, yet Blacktown, even though we're near the bottom, are getting crowds of at least 2500—and that's a genuine figure. No multiplication required there!

The Principal has expressed the view that if a similar request was made to the V.F.L. a response of some sort would certainly have been received, and he may be right. The school soccer team is still enthusiastic, but the staff are somewhat disillusioned, and feel that the governing body of this game is clearly uninterested in its sub-junior members and their mentors, and in addition, is inefficient and discourteous. Fallon has enjoyed remarkable success as coach of provincial clubs Nelson United and Gisborne. Drafted as John Adshead's assistant earlier this year, he is credited with the subsequent boost in morale and vastly improved defensive structure of the Kiwiso, he led unfashionable Nelson United to an Historic Chatham Cup win in 1977 and moulded the current Gisborne team into one of the most powerful combinations in New Zealand.

A native of South Yorkshire, like Vest, Fallon played professionally for Rotherham United, Southend United and Sligo Rovers, appearing in Art and the Team of the Company of the Company of the Park of the Company of the Park of the Company o

Migrating in 1972, he joined Gisborne City whom then was coached by Vest.
Fallon, 32, who still plays in the heart of the "Sky Blues" defence, is reported to be enthusiastic about the prospect of coaching Newcastle.
To his everlasting credit though he has decided to see the season out at Gisborne, aclub still battling for it's first major honor at the head of the National League table.
The loss of Fallon at this stage would be a tremendous body blow to City.
Whether guided by Fallon or Baartz, KB United is assured of being in capable hands next season.

Rene Houseman:

George Best

By PAUL MOON

Sydney City Hakoah finally received a clearance for Rene Houseman last Friday and he will make his Australian debut against Blacktown on Sunday - If he gets here in

Yes, yes, that's been reported dozens of times since Hakoah said it had acquired the Argentinian star.

But this time it's spot on, dead set, no worries! (we bope, Sernous), he was due to arrive at the time we went to Press. For countries have produced as many genuinely great players as Argentian. The most prominent have been Alfredo Di Stefano, the state of the Boston of the B all watched his progress with immense interest.

A transfer to First division Huracan brought him under the wing of disciplinarian Cesar Luis Menotti and here he began to fulfil his enormous potential.

A devastatingly brilliant dribbler, Houseman consistently tore defences to shreds and was the prime factor in Huracan's 1973 National Championship.

One year later his fame spread further during a World Cup in which he proved a revelation.

Although Argentina won just a single game out of six, it produced some of the most delightful soccer of the tournament with its tiny winger in scintillating form.

Back home Huracan's fortunes slumped, despite being able to call upon internationals Miguel Brindisl, Osvaldo Ardiles, Carlos Babington, Jorge Carrascosa and Houseman.

The decline coincided with Menottl's elevation to the position of national team coach.

Houseman though continued his wizardry on the flanks and Brussels club Anderlecht offered Huracan $800,000 in an attempt to bring him back to the land of his forefathers.

Being in the World Cup squad however, he was barred from oving about the list club over a contract renewal, Houseman missed much of the 1977 season through suspension.

moving abroad with his club over a contract renewal, Houseman missed much of the 1977 season through suspension.

Hard-up Hurcan was in no position to meet the star's demands, Eventually supporters of the Buenos Aires club solved the problem by raising cash amongst themselves and presenting a large bonus whenever their hiero scored!

With his protege now back in action, Menotti immediately recalled Houseman for the 1978 World Cup build-up.

He responded with a series of glorious performances, although his tendency to hang onto the ball brought accusations of excess individualism and not being a team man.

As the most experienced member of the squad (he, Mario Kempes and Ubaldo Filiol being the only survivors from 1974), there was no doubt about his place in the host nation's opening line-up.

In the final against Holland, Houseman made his appearance in the 74th minute of normal time and immediately added bite to a forward line which was making little impression on a solid Dutch rearguard.

In the 11th minute of extra time the replacement surged clear and was only thwarted by a brilliant Jan Jongbleed save. The writing was on the wall though and the revitalised Argentinians ran out worthy 3-1 winners.

A World Cup Winners' medal is the ambition of every soccerplayer, and having achieved this a return to domestic football appeared mundane, particularly as relations with the Huracan management continued to be strained.

Following the move of Ardlies and Ricardo Villa, Houseman also sought a transfer to England. Middlesbrough expressed interest only for Huracan to offer a massive pay increase and he was apply to stay for the strained of Argentina's 1978 European tour, Houseman increased his number of international appearances to 60, a record only recently suppassed by Americo Gallego.

The South Americans' last four match, against Scotland at Hampden Park, marked the end of the quicksilver winger's international career.

A lax attitude to training was blamed for a remarkable loss of form which resulted in omission from Menotti's pool.

The fact that he was now free to ply his trade overseas was a consolation and Detroit Express of the North American Soccer League was on the verge of completing the signing when, once again, Houseman and Huracan agreed terms.

The peace treaty was only temporary. With Argentina's continuous hyper-inflation it is essential for players to renew their contracts regularly.

He didn't know much about Australia but regarded it as a challenge, Mycak also knew that goalkeeper John Michiewski had also gone to White Eagles from the same American club, Falcons New Britain, Mycak had never met John but had read about him in Poland and knew that in the United States he had played with the Falcons and with NASL club Boston Minutemen. Coaches should have a good basic knowledge of human anatomy and physiology. With this knowledge, a good coach can devise his own unique methods to bring players to their peak.

Mycak believes there is great talent among Australian youth.

More youth coaches are re-quired, however, and two training sessions a week aren't enough.

Goalie saves penalties and scores them too

Any player who is worth 14 goals to his club must be an asset. If that player happens to be a goalkeeper, he's more than just an asset; he's a sensation!

John Michniewski, 37, is the goalkeeper of top Tasmanian Rothmans League Division 1 team, White Eagles At six feet one inch, Michniewski is every inch a goalkeeper. He is agile and swift, has a powerful throw and kick, and handles the ball with an excellent tech-nique developed during his many years of top-class ex-pereince.

This season he has saved seven penalties and has scored seven himself, an outstanding performance by any standards.
White Facles were rele-seven himself, an outstanding performance by any standards.

White Eagles were relegated from the State League last season but have bounced straight back at the first attempt. With three easy games left, they are four points in front and have the best goal difference in the league. I have the control of the credit for the team's success in Tasmanian soccer, only Peter Brine and Eric Young can match the credentials of Michniewski. He became a professional in Foland at the age of 16 with first division team Zawisza Bydgoszcz, a team that is still in the top half of the Polish First Division. He was the youngest First Division. He was the youngest First Division. He was the youngest First Division and at the time and, as he told me in faltering American accented English (and with the aid of interpreter Eddle Kempa) "I was very nervous in my irst games. But, the training prepared me. The training he produce pers was very specialised and very heavy. I don't his there's a coach in Tasmania who has any idea on how to really coach goalkeepers".

Michniewski also played with Unia Racibor in the Polish First Division for two years and in the Second Divi-sion for five years (the team is now in the Third Division).

In 1970 he went to the United States where he first played with Falcons New Britain, and then with the Boston Minute-men, together with Portu-guese greats Eusebio and Sim-oes.

He played seven tim against the mighty Cosmos.

Of Eusebio he says: "I saw him perform feats at training that I've never seen any other player perform. His ball skills are phenomenal."

Michniewski arrived in Tas-mania last season and relega-tion was a blow. But White Eagles almost certainly will be back in the top flight next

New Year Harrison, just back from Wollongong in the Philips League, is the best goalkeeper he's seen locally. The most dangerous local forwards he's faced are Ian Parker (Brighton-ICL) and Brian Davidson (George Town).

Michniewski believes that goalkeepers are born, but a lot of work has to be put in to develop talent to the utmost. He would like to go on playing as long as he's healthy, fit and retains his interest in training. When he's finished playing, he'd like to take up coaching and to pass on his vast, top-class experience.

In the meantime, he intends to continue giving 100 percent effort for his club, from the moment he begins his elaborate pre-match warm-ups before amazed spectators, to the final whistle, even if it does include either saving or taking penalties during the course of a game.

makes his debut

Robert Trafficante, hailed by all at Hellas as a star of the future, will get his big chance in the senior team against Hanimex United at Olympic Park on Wednesday, August 5.

The match kicks off at 7.30 pm. Hanimex played Olympic in Sydney yesterday (Tuesday) and meets Wollengong tomorrow (Thursday).

Trafficante, a State youth presentative, joined Hellas rom Juventus and has been terring in the club's Second livision team.

The word is that Alan David-on will be playing in midfield ext season, and that Traffi-ante will come in as left back.

This match against New Zealand's Hanimex (formerly North Shore United) is ex-pected to be the forerunner of a series of matches between Hellas and teams from over-

Hellas's main consideration against Hanimex is to regain prestige for Australian soccer, after the Kiwis' victory over the Socceroos in the World

Shrewd coach John Margaritis is likely to make a few experiments in this game — experiments he cannot afford in the championship, as he and his team are determined to bring the title to Victoria for the first time.

This will be Hanimex's 95th season playing Association Football in Auckland and championships have been won in every grade the club has en-tered teams, from midgets to the Rothmans Soccer League.

the Rothmans Soccer League
Founded in 1887 at Devonport by Charles Craven Dacre the first name of the club was Devonport on a suggestion by a New Zealand Herald's sports writer so as to avoid a clash with the North Shore Rugby Club Dacre had played in the first official Association (soccer) match in England during 1863 when the counties of Surrey and Kent played Middlesex This was not the only sport in which he became involved.

He was an excellent cricketer and played rugby for North Shore, in fact in 1876 he played for Auckland in the first interprovincial rugby game won by Auckland against Canterbury and it was Dacre who scored the first points with a try early in the game.

It is a fact that many good sportsman excelled in more than just one sport and quite a few have been connected with the club over the years — Leo Prime played for Auckland at soccer, cricket and hockey in the early 1900's.

Later two sons of Charles Dacre Ces and Life, appeared together in cricket and soccer representative teams in 1920, Ces later getting New Zealand caps in both sports.

Jack Cowie may be better remembered as a fast bowler and the late Verdun Scott as an opening batsman, but both were very good soccer play-ers, Verdun played for New Zealand in Rugby League.

To mention in this space, all the club records would be impossible so perhaps one of the most unusual would be more fitting. The run of 43 consecutive games by the club's premier team at Devonport Domain from 1897 until July 1906, ending with an away game at Hoen Park which at that time was the headquarters of the Auckland Football Association.

Last season saw the start of a new era by joining the ranks of those clubs who have changed their names to those of a sponsor. North Shore's Rothmans League team is known as Hanimex United.

known as Hanimex United.

Mr Cameron, Sales Manager, looks for a long and successful partnership between the two parties both on the soccer field and in the building of the new North Shore Sports and Recreation Centre in Devonport. Here Shore has 13 and a half acres to develop for soccer and other uses and the clubrooms on site now are being fully used and development of the fields is now going ahead.

The 1979 season, the first of the partnership with Hanimex, saw the club have its finest year, possibly the best in New Zealand soccer history.

The club won: the Air New Zealand Trophy; the Chatham Cup and the Bill McKinlay Trophy.

In addition, Don Jones was selected as Auckland F.A.'s Coach of the Year, Players for New Zealand in 1879 were Adrian Eirick, Duncan Cole, Duncan Ornou and Neil Haines. After such an achievement Hanimex Immediately doubled its sponsorship and increased the agreement with the club to five years.

Ganberra's star was mid-fielder Duncan Cole who worked extremely hard and hammered a couple of powerful long-range drives at goal. When J.U.S.T. established its superiority, it did so on the left side, through Igor Hazabent, Slobodan Jovanovic and Zdravko Lujic who finally escaped the clutches of John Moutsopoulos.

MATCH RATING:

Bruno Cozzella also became a dominant figure, scoring a goal, having another disallowed, and also being deserted by luck a couple of times.

J.U.S.T. had 19 points up to and including the 16th round. In the seven rounds shore then, it has picked up nine points - a clear indication of how this team has improved since the addition of Lujic and Verweij. Before Verweij came, J.U.S.T. played mostly with two wide forwards, which usually meant that the opposing centre backs were free to build up play and even come forward. Now the centre backs have to watch Verweij: he's very tall and therefore dangerous in the air and he's a hard worker.

Canberra had a problem at centre back because of the suspension of sweeper Terry Byrne, the club's No. 1 player this season. John O'Shea moved back from midfield to play in Byrne's position, and

Kyri back, Canberra blitzed

Canberra was so short of players that coach George Murray was on the bench, ready to come on in case of more injuries.

Cirkovic used Kyriakouleas and Kondarios to mark Valeri and Ian Gibson, with Jim O'Relly sweeping behind them and full backs Jim Milne and Razabent nushing un relentified. Hazabent pushing up relent-and this backs of the mineral problems of the control of the contr away before it could reach Lujic who was lurking at the far post.

And Harry Williams also made a timely clearance, as a bail from Illoski was coming cross, with three or four JU-S.T. players waiting for it. But Canberra continued to hold an edge and Boland was forced to make his first difficult save to stop a low drive from Cole in the 23rd minute. Seconds later Gibson, inside the goal area, struck a Dom Maclaren cross first-time with the side of his foot, but it went across goal.

And Kyriakouleas made a timely dive at a cross from Cole before it could be put away from inside the area. The turning point came in the 38th minute who Purdie way from inside the area.

The turning point came in the 39th minute when Purdie fouled Jim Milne who had run into the box, chasing a ball from Hazabent. Referee Evan Venios awarded a penalty and lioski tucked it away low to put J.U.S.T. into the lead.

A high, loping header from Verweij almost made it 2-0 but Hoszowski leapt high to palm it over the bar.
Camberra pushed Maclaren up from midfield to join Valeri and Gibson in attack, but this gave J.U.S.T. more room to move, and it took advantage well.

move, and it took advantage well.
First however, there were a few more close calls.
Kondarios played a short header straight at Gibson who ran past Kondarios, into the area, and confronted Boland. He shot low to Boland's left but the goalkeeper read it well and got down to save.
Gibson then wriggled past Hazabent and O'Reilly but there was Kyriakouleas again, nailing Gibson just inside the area.

A free kick by Ilioski in the 56th minute was blocked by the defensive wall and the ball rebounded to Hazabent whose fierce first-time volley hit the far post. The ball bounced back across goal but Cozzella, running in, just failed to connect, and Verwelj's follow-up was well saved by Hoszowski.

Three minutes later Jovanovic sent Lujic away down the left wing and Kondarios headed Lujic's cross into the net for the second goal. The valuable point will do much to keep Preston in the PSL and the draw also finished Leichhardt's slim hopes of winning PSL honors this year.

To be honest, Preston was a bit unlucky not to have gone back to Melbourne with both points.

If a Doug Brown header which rattled the Leichhardt crossbar in the 15th minute had gone in the story of the game would have been entirely different.

Mind you, Leichhardt's de-posed socceroo goalkeeper Greg Woodhouse had a mag-nificent afternoon and some of his saves were tremendous. Woodhouse is off to Preston — the other one in the English Third Division — at the end of the season and on this form will do well Preston opened the scoring in the 40th minute after the best move of the game. Their clever midfielder Isaac Farrell split the Leich-hardt defence with a magnifi-cent through ball that Claude Lucchesi put away like an ex-nert.

While Croatia was crusing to a 5-0 victory over Canterbury in the NSW State League the other front runner St George was struggto a 1-0 win over bottom-of-the-table Bankstown.

This Sunday's clash between the State League's two top teams becomes even more in-triguing following last week-end's results.

The other goals came from winger Hilton Silva, mid-fielder Kevin Coleman and left back Bob Pagano.

Overall it was an impressive performance from Croatia, which must now go into Sunday's match against St George with a great deal of confidence.

St George turned in a rather lifeless performance against a Bankstown side which fought doggedly, particularly in the second half.

Kempes shaded by Houseman

Ambitious, but impoverished, Huracan promised a salary which it simply could not meet.

Unpaid for over a month, Houseman and the rest of the club's senior players declared themselves "free agents."

Immediately River Plate, one of Argentina's most illustrious clubs, moved in and offered a one-year contract.

With the new club his form improved dramatically and during the first handful of games he outshone Mario Kempes, River's $3,500,000 acquisition from Valencia. The honeymoon was short, though.

$3,500,000 acquisition from vacanta, has acquisition from the though.

The Argentine champions' sensational elimination from the Libertadores Cup by unrated Deportivo Cali of Colombia prompted a complete clear out and Houseman was released.

Celebrating his 28th birthday on the day Hakoah was scheduled to meet Footscray JUST (July 19), the Argentinian represents an extraordinary coup for the Sydney club.

Houseman often has been likened to George Best, not simply because of his ability but a similar disregard for hard training

South Melbourne Hellas came to Wollongong with a blatantly defensive attitude and was lucky to avoid defeat.

Helias rarely got mid-fielders John Stevenson and Jim Shirra out of their own half and relied heavily on for-wards Branko Buljevic and Steve Wooddin putting their foot on the ball and waiting for support which often did not come in time.

But Hellas had good reason to be cautious. It missed four players — Alun Evans (suspended), Alan Davidson and Steve Blair who were in Fiji with the Socceroos, and Billy Rogers who was in hospital after falling off a roof while working on Saturday.

In the light of those handi-caps, Hellas must be ex-tremely happy with a point. Socrates Nicolaides came in as Rogers' replacement, and played at left back, with Bertie Lutton as sweeper.

At 23, Ilioski is the second-youngest team captain in the PSL. The youngest is Olym-pic's Peter Katholos who's Like Katholos, and the young stars he talked about earlier, Ilioski emerged from the ranks of Australian junior soccer.

He was II when he came from Prelet in Macedonia with his parents Nedejjko, who was a midfielder in amateur soccer at home, was reluctant to let his son play in Melbourne. "It was a strange place to him," Hioski says. "He didn't want to take any chances. He wanted me home early every night. But now he's my No.1 supporter of JUST. He wouldn't miss a game."

As a junior, Ilioski played up front and usually scored two or three goals a game.

In fact, he scored so regularly that he was chosen by coaches Bill Curran and Bobby McLachlan to represent Victoria at under 14, 18, 18 and schoolboy levels.

And at J.U.S.T. he would often play two matches a day — for the under 12s early, and then for the under 13s or under 14s afterwards.

One of the highlights of his junior career was playing in the Footscray Tech team that won the Australian schools championship by beating Elizabeth High in Adelaide 32. Elizabeth High was coached by West Adelaide Hellas star Barry Reynolds, while Footscray Tech's coach was former Ringwood Withelmina goal-keeper Rudi van Altena.

Ilioski's team mates in-cluded Peter Laumets (now Hellas), Mendo Ristovski (Juventus), Fred Dimitriou (Polonia), Rick Lipiarski (Polona), and Boris Gilevski (Altona Gate).

In the Victorian schools final, Footscray Tech beat alan Davidson's Altona Tech 3-0. Ilioski scored twice and Gilevski once.

Ilioski scored the winning goal in extra time as Foot-scray Tech beat Kuringai in the semi-finals, and in the final against Elizabeth, it was Ristovski who got all three.

In the various Victorian representative teams of which lilosid was a part, his team mates includes Christ Kalafatidis (Northcote), Bill Jordanou (Hakosh), Alex Marshall (Polonia), Rocco Santangelo (Fawkner), Lou Sannipoli (Juventus) and Jack Mihocek who gave up soccer and became a VFL footballer with Essendon.

Ilioski's first opportunity in senior soccer came in 1975, in the Victorian State League.

Frank Micic was not going to last forever, and coach Cirkovic was looking for someone eventually to replace the J.U.S.T. general. He chose Ilioski who was 16 at the time.

"I had to do the marking, and the chasing," he remem-bers

"I had to follow the oppo-sing stars all over the ground — Jimmy Mackay of Hellas and Dave Rigby of Moorool-bark for example.

"Micic was very good to me, and so was Branko Bul-jevic. Those two carried J.U.S.T. for many years."

He also had a high regard for J.U.S.T.'s great goalsco-rer, Slobodan Zoraja. "I set up quite a few goals for him," he says..... "little Zokkie and big Zokkie." He laughs.

"1977 could have been a good year too. I started well, but I broke my nose in a clash with Peter Wilson and it kept me out for six weeks.

"Last year I had a few problems with the coach, Rocco Ille, but I've settled down now and I'm playing well. Ille always told me off at training, He couldn't tell off the older players, so he told off the younger ones. I'm not saying he's a bad coach — he's very good — but I told him off one night at training and he put me out.

"Cirkovic always tells me before the game what I should do and he gives me confidence. I have learned more from him than from anyone else.

"Being made captain also improved my game. It gave me more confidence. Players respect me more now. I'm not the young kid any more. They're friendlier to me."

Ilioski has played just about every position on the field — that's why he'd be such a great asset to the Socreto squad. Midfield, left back, sweeper, right back, sweeper, right back even forward (although he's worried he hasn't played there for a while) are his domain.

Midfield is his favorite position now — and he scores goals from there. Asked which of his five goals so far was his best, he says: "Each one I score is better than the last, but P've been unlucky. Not one has been on TV."

There's no chance in his mind that J.U.S.T. will be relegated. Who then? West Adelaide, probably, he says, and the other will be either Blacktown or Sydney Olympic—probably the latter because Blacktown has a better defence.

What's caused the improvement in J.U.S.T's fortunes? "The spirit is better now," he says. "The players are friendly together — like a family. It was not like that before. Cira made all the difference, I think. Everyone's fighting for the club now. Lujic's return has made a difference too. And Verweij is trying his best all the time. One minute he's a striker up front, the next he's back to help his defence. It's been a long time since J.U.S.T. had a centre forward like that."

But J.U.S.T.'s away results remain dismal.

Ilioski blames it on the travel.

"Most clubs travel on Sat-urdays and stay overnight.
"We travel on the morning of the game, unless we're playing in Newastie or Brisbane. We have to get up at 6 or 7, then it's off to the airport, a bus to the motel, an or the r bus to the ground.....the players get very tired."

Preston Makedonia was interested in buying Ilioski last year but J.U.S.T. obviously didn't want to lose him. It quoted prices of between $20,000 and $25,000 and succeeded in scaring Makedonia away.

He'll stay at J.U.S.T., he says. He's happy there.

Asked to name his tough est opponents, he lists:
Jimmy Mackay, Dave
Rigby, Jimmy Rooney Ulysses Kokkinos who played for Hellas and Heidelberg, and Tommy Cumming

About Rooney, he volun-teers: "He's very hard and also very tricky. He'll push you, and he'll step on your feet. He doesn't care — he plays it hard. He's not really dirty though. I respect him a lot."

Today Rooney is the doyen of midfielders. In 10 years we'll be saying the same about Ilioski. Meanwhile, Ilioski has the talent to achieve what Rooney has. All he needs is the chance.

It was the same side he had favoured in his first effort. Wishart guessed correctly and Blacktown had lost a winning chance header on to the outside of the post.

Wishart dropped one ball right on his own goal line among a milling group of players, but somehow his goal remained intact.

Barry Kelso, Brisbane's glant striker, opened his team's account in the 33rd minute from its first worthwhile opportunity.

The Blacktown defence was looking for an offside decision and goalkeeper Bruce James had absolutely no chance of reaching a scorching drive.

chance of reaching a scorching drive.

O'Donnell equalised from the spot for Blacktown right on half time after Wishart had upended the menacing Paul Burrows.

Substitute Brisbane winger Willie Connor got the winner after a '19th minute break along the right side, following a well-judged pass from Billy Wilkinson.

Blacktown.
Blacktown stormed back in the final 10 minutes. They held Brisbane City's goal under constant siege, but to no avail.
Young right back Tony Rasmussen, a driving force in attack as well as defence, crashed one unstoppable header on to the outside of the post.

From this moment on Adel-aide City tried to hit back but found that it couldn't turn its game on and off like a tap.

Two minutes later Charlie Villani exploded into the KB area, rounded Neil Endacott and shot but Dando was equal to the task and pulled off a save which salvaged a point for the locals.

The two sides played a 2-2 draw, after a second half slump by the visitors. Adelaide City looked likely to record a crushing win with two goals in the first 20 min-utes. Guest striker Justin Fashanu gave his side a fifth minute lead when he easily beat Newcastle goalkeeper Phil Dando from only three metres.

may cost the side its chance of taking the Philips Soccer League championships for 1881

Sergio Melta, who set up Fashanu's goal, scored 15 minutes later after a simple passing movement that ex-posed large holes in the New-castle defence.

Adelaide almost pressed further ahead but a goal in the 37th minute by Bobby Russell was disallowed.

Newcastle took advantage of that let off to hit back strongly at the visiting defence and twice in the last two minutes of the half could have pulled one goal back.

Striker David Jones saw his 41st minute attempt headed off the line by his Adelaide City namesake and in the 43rd minute watched his 12 metre shot cannon into the cross-bar, with the goalkeeper beaten.

Newcastle captain Roy Drinkwater, playing his 100th game for the club, was the in-spiration behind the home team's second half revival.

Drinkwater had been denied three headed attempts before his perfectly timed header in the 68th minute brought New-castle back into the game.

KB levelled in the 85th minute when Jones crossed from the left, the ball eluding Adelaide City's defenders and falling to the foot of Graham Heys who made no mistake from the centre of the six yard area.

The 1976 State League season was a good one for him, but 1981 has been the best, he says.

No Hellas mercy for underdog West Adelaide

By CRAIG MACKENZIE

West Adelaide has stared up at South Melbourne Hellas throughout this season and things shouldn't change when these teams meet at Middle Park on Sunday.

While West Adelaide labors While West Adetaide labors among the also rans, Hellas is poised to remind its fans of the good old days when a league championship became an accepted part of the club's booty at the end of a season in Victoria's State League.

Winning means more to Hellas than most clubs. Indeed winning is part of the Helias tradition.

Hellas won the State League championship in 1976 then challenged St. George for the unofficial title of Australia's premier club, Hellas won and embarked upon a new era in the infant PSL the following year. Everyone connected with the club was in a euphoric state. Helias was the best.

History records Hellas's lack of success in the PSL. No records are kept of the feelings of the club's proud supporters, hurt by the unexpected struggle.

Smiling faces, cheering fans and confident predictions fill the air. You almost can smell

Both are Greek clubs, one ymbolising success, the other stark reminder of what soing is all about. Helias on't show mercy for its South instralian neighbour.

Alum Evans should be back after serving an automatic one week suspension for accu-mulating too many penalty points and Alan Davidson and Steve Blair will return after last weekend's World Cup clash with Fiji.

With a full strength line-up Hellas will win and keep up the pressure on Sydney City as both clubs knuckle down to fight out this year's championship battle to the final flurry.

Preston Makedonia should trab at least a point from Sun-lay's Connor Reserve contest gainst Ken Morton's Wollon-

Morton claims that Wollongong has rekindled the organisation, aggression and bite which took it to the top of the PSL ladder early in the sea-

, John Lathan has done well since vacating his midfield role and pushing up front but he'll find Makedonia stopper George McMillan a handful.

speed and tackles ferociously. He's reveiling in his return to his former role as a destroyer after years of playing up front for the proper state of the proper state mate so I'll back a draw.

But Wollongong's defence is just as uncompromising. On paper this looks like a stale-mate so I'll back a draw.

Sydney City slumped to a shock 1-4 defeat to Blacktown a few weeks ago in their game deferred from a PSL round earlier this year. The Slickers complained about Blacktown's defensive tactics and will be out for revenge on Sunday when they host Rale Rasic's outfit at the Sydney Athletic Field.

A win is a most fee the Field.

A win is a must for the classy Sydney City if its top of the table status is to remain inForget the ballyhoo about Blackrowns offside trap Sydney City will win with hot Mosmina back from Injury to partner the best finisher in the PSL, Kenny Boden.

Marconi goes into Sunday's home game against Footscray JUST with a fine record against the Melbourne based outfit.

JUST has beaten Marconi only once in nine PSL encoun-ters and shouldn't enhance that low winning record here.

that low winning record here.

Marconi's problem will be to try to break through the packed JUST back line while not getting caught too far forward allowing Zdravko Lujic to wreak havec on an undermanned defence.

I think JUST will surprise everyone and fly back to Mel-bourne with a vital point to add weight to its renewed effort to climb away from the tail end of the league ladder.

On paper the Adelaide City

— APIA Leichhardt meeting at Olympic Sports Field on Sunday promises a bagful of goals.

If APIA is to catch up to front runners Sydney City and Bellas it must throw away any thought about containment away from home, take the game to Adelaide City and go for both points.

Should APIA coach Willie Wallace adopt an attacking, adventurous approach, the fans at Olympic Sports Field will be in for a tremendous spectacle.

I'd like to see the visitors throw down the gauntlet to the home side.

This could spur on Adelaide City, boosted by David Mit-chell's return from national team duty, and make for a great advertisement for PSL soccer.

I lean slightly to the local side.

Sydney Olympic's helter skelter approach to defence won't reap rewards when it runs into Heidelberg's strike force led by Jamie Paton and Gary Cole.

I'm tipping the Bergers to win. I've stuck by them in recent weeks, believing that there's no substitute for quality.

Graham Jennings will find out why Arthur McMillan's one of the best full backs in the PSL and I doubt whether Peter Katholos's abundant skills and creativity will split the Ber-gers' back four.

I've been hearing a few interesting things about Brisbane City in recent weeks. Seems that harmony isn't the keynote of the relationship between some of the players up Spencer Park way.

The story goes that if some Brisbane City boys put as much aggression and effort into league games as they do in training games against each other then the Brisbane boys could be world beaters. Well, not quite world beaters but you know what I mean.

know what I mean.

Whether my information is fact or fiction I think Brisbane City will put enough effort into Sunday's game against Newcastle KB to pick up both points.

points.

And Canberra looks capable of breaking through Brisbane Lions' solid central defensive combination of Jim Hermiston and Col Bennett at the Bruce Stadium on Sunday.

APIA central defender and former Socceroo captain Peter Wilson (left) leads South Melbourne Hellas and Kiwi international Steve Wooddin to the ball. Wilson faces up to Makedonia's brilliant Doug Brown on Sunday.

BERGERS BAG McLEOD

Heidelberg-Alexander last week final-ised negotiations for centre back Don McLeod, 20, of Nottingham Forest. McLeod was expected to arrive in Melbourne as we went to Press. He is the young brother of Gus McLeod, the goal machine of leading Victorian State League club Green Gully Ajax.

Don McLeod, 20, was captain of Not-tingham Forest's reserve team but has been granted a free clearance.

Heidelberg failed to replace Pat Bannon when he switched to Essendon Croatis early this year.

It hopes McLeod will fill the bill.

Sapoliti informed Blanco that although there was no Maradona in his team — it was 'quite strong' and everything was going according to plan. And let's face it, a Maradona comes along only once in a blue moon.

The reason for Argentina coming here 13 days before the WYC kick-offs is to counteract the time difference between here and Argentina. One day for every hour's difference is the South Americans reasoning.

And who can argue with them — they're the world chimple of the capitalised on by coaches here in Australia.

For here is a "master coach" par excellance.

Before the 1978 World Cup series he was named "El Loco" by the locals.

He was named the madman because he ignored the cowd

- the Argentinean champions.

However the sorrowful-looking coach who at that time was 39 years old and sometimes tooked 100, triumphed and proved himself one of the best coaches in the world.

He was helped in his quest by thousands of cigarettes—he smoked four packs a game! I only hope that Australian soccer will take the oppor-tunity of having this great coach here and use it to the fullest fullest.

The WYC is the greatest soccer extravaganza yet to be held here.

favorites and picked his own players for the national team. In what can only be des-cribed as the bravest decision of all, Menotti did not select any players from Boca Juniors — the Argentinean champions.

Let's hope everyone realises this — including the powers that be in our controversial coaching set-up.

jax, Croatia to stay on title when either Ajax or Croatia will be proclai-med the champion team of the 1981 State League competition, the weekend's games involving clashes between the top six sides, should prove crucial to this year's title race.

Ajax must be favored to clinch its first State League championship. Not only because it enjoys a two point break at the top but also because it hand to suffer from the coaching changes which have characterised Croatia's season.

Croatia has a hard task on Sunday against George Cross at Chaplia Reserve.

I think Croatia can win. Bobby Teal is the key to Cross's fortunes up front. He has no hope of beating Steve Kokoska in the air so the Cross plan probably will be to play balls into Toal's feet and work off him.

Alax travels to Middle Park to rake a home.

front of a PSL crowd. More importantly, officials from both Hellas and West Adelaide will be watching. I don't think Ajax will disappoint them.

Has Deveton's bubble burst?

The Doves face up to Croydon at Waratah Reserve on Sunday and I'm tipping the visitors to win.

The Loughnane lads, lan and Peter, have given Croydon the bite up front which was lacking during the club's mini mid-season slump.

bite up front which was lacking during the club's mini mid-season slump.

And former Doveton player Kim Wassell will be out to prove a few people at Doveton wrong.

Ringwood meets Juventus at Jubliee Park on Sunday in a clash vital to the State League survival of both outfits.

Juventus will be hard hit by Fablo Incantalupo's loss, Incantalupo will serve an automatic one week suspension after his sent builts. Ringwood will win. It amazes me why the club hasn't done better this year because on paper it looks to have the nucleus of a fair side.

Players like Brian Sinclair, David Brooks, Noel O'Brien, Paul O'Riley and John O'Callaghan are too good for the lower echelons of State League.

Frankston will be happy to feave Chaplin Reserve on Saturday evening with a point from its clash with Sunshine.

Sunshine coach Dave O'Connor experimented last weekend by pushing Dennis Morovic up into a left sided midfield role and dropping back Christ Taylor to left back. The Shiners won 34 is oltelikely that O'Connor will maintain the positional switch.

I still feel that Frankston can steal a point.

Altona seems to have lost its competitive edge so I expect Northcote to grab both points at John Cain Reserve on Sunday.

Forget last weekend's 3-30 scoreline in Taylor of Croydon. Northcote looked very good coming forward in the first half but poor finishing robbed it of taking the lead.

Croatia put paid to Doveton's 15 game unbeaten run but the victory proved costly. Noel Mitten joined the long list of walking wounded at the club. Tommy Cumming, Carl Gilder and Howard Andrews already are on that list.

To add to Croatia's worries Alan Kerr was sent off for the second time in five weeks. This clash was exciting with many goal line clearances but the standard of play was poor. Croatia opened the scoring in the 5th minute. Dave Brogan ran onto Kelth Adams' pass down Croatia's left.

APIA Leichhardt is having its base season yes in the PSL sider entering the league in 1979. The marriage between APIA, with its massive itsians support, and PSL member club Wassern Suburbs was short lived. Suburbs pulled out and APIA was left to struggle through its infancy in the PSL. It was a herst blow for such a proud club, one of the pacesetters in Sydroy soccer. The club's honors list includes: NSW League Champion 1964, 66, 67, 73, NSW Federston CLU Winner 1962, 76, NSW Grand Final Winner 1964, 68, 68, 76, Stare Cup Winner 1955, Ampol Cup Winner 1966, 70, 74 and Australia Cup Holder in 1966, Under insanger-cach William Valence.

Manchester United is expected to get only about $400,000 — a fraction of the player's real value for 29-year-old striker Joe Jordan who Joined A.C. Milan after his contract at Old Trafford had expired. UEFA will decide the size of the fee based on the Continental system of age and wages ruling.

Jordon capped 46 times for Scotland has been warmed by his former World Cup colleague Dennis Law who had a year with Torino that Italian soccer is not all milk and honey while some of the Italian stoppers like Gentile, Bachlechner and Benetti are conscious of Jordan's ability in the air and his tough and fiery temperament. Joe initially wanted $2000 a week from Manchester United to stay, then upped this to $4000 a week which is out of the question in even top English soccer. With A.C. he gets a basic $200,000 a vear plus a rented flat and car and he has signed a two-year contract with a further one-year option.

The hard up River Plate club of Argentine which is in financial difficulties over payments to Spanish side Valencia for the transfer of Mario Kempes has been given more breathing space. Valencia has agreed to halve the repayments and double the tiel limit for such. But in the long term it will cost River Plate, which has to pay $3.2 milling for Kempes, an extra $250,000 in interest.

Rolf Loose, captain of the West German youth side which won the UEFA Cup, has signed a four-year pro contract with Borussia Dortmund Loose, now 18, had been on Borussia's books as an amateur for the past three seasons.
